

I sincerely hope you will not interfere with K-LOVE transmission due to LPFM station. This station services a niche that no other station fills and is vital to our community. I currently listen to this station every day and I would hate to have anything interfere with the station's broadcast. Thank you for your consideration.